

A Celebration of Public Education in Vermont
Thursday, October 24, 2024
5:00 pm - 6:00 pm
Student and Educator Exhibits

Explore innovative educational programs highlighting youth leadership, community connections, and future-ready learners. Exhibits are open for networking, with hors d'oeuvres and beverages provided.

Exhibitors:

- Barre Unified Union School District, Spaulding High School – Electrifying learning for work-based STEAM programming with Generator's maker education
- Caledonia Central Supervisory Union – Social Emotional Learning and Mental Health through Project AWARE
- Champlain Valley School District, Champlain Valley Union High School – Promoting STEM through passion-based and hands-on learning with the RoboHawks
- Franklin Northeast Supervisory Union – Student-designed 3D modeling and student access to Prisms VR, a spatial learning platform for math & science
- Franklin Northeast Supervisory Union – Art and STEM projects from the LEAPS Afterschool Program for youth in grades k-12
- Greater Rutland County Supervisory Union, Rutland Town School – Green Team climate change program and projects
- Orange Southwest Unified Union School District, Randolph Union High School– Grade 13 mentoring pilot for college support and retention
- Rutland Northeast Supervisory Union, Neshobe Elementary School – Student Council video announcements for community building and engagement
- UP for Learning – Youth program staff will feature the anti-racism steering committee at Winooski High School
- Vermont General Assembly – Legislative Pages observe the workings of the legislature and witness firsthand the often historic events in Montpelier
- Windham Central Supervisory Union, Leland & Gray Union Middle High School – Bike Tech program developing transferable skills

Art Displays:

- South Burlington School District, Frederick H Tuttle Middle School
- Rutland Northeast Supervisory Union, Barstow Memorial School

A Celebration of Public Education in Vermont
Thursday, October 24, 2024
6:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Live Student Performances

Interlude music provided by River Valley Technical Center's Audio Video Production Program.

- Essex-Westford School District, Essex High School – Chamber Choir performing "From Now On" in a music video created and produced by students and the Chorus Director
- Burlington School District, Burlington High School – Racial Justice Academy will share examples of youth leadership organizing for systems changes through storytelling, slam poetry, and work samples
- St. Johnsbury School District, St. Johnsbury School – Broadcast Journalism class's "Catamount News Network"
- Winooski School District, Winooski High School – Youth-led performance – a combination of storytelling, poetry, and group writing - all of which share students' experiences of being students of color, from immigrant families or with immigration experiences of their own, living in this country
- Mountain Views Supervisory Union, Woodstock Union High School and Middle School – Performance of "In Arden" from As You Like It by Shaina Taub (a Vermont singer/actor/composer)

Celebration Hosts:

Libby Bonesteel, Superintendent, Montpelier-Roxbury Public Schools
Neil O'Dell, School Board Member, Norwich School District

This event would not have been possible without the generous support of The J. Warren & Lois McClure Foundation.

THE J. WARREN
& LOIS MCCLURE
FOUNDATION